Peter Maher, the Irish Fighter After a Fight With O'Donnell.

IVES PLAYS GREAT BILLIARDS

In the Match With Schaefer, and is Away Ahead—The South Side Bowling Team Makes a Record—Nameless Wins Two From the Calumets. The Races at St. Asaph—Other News of Sport.

Boston, Nov. 14.—J. J. Quinn, backer of Peter Maher, to-day posted $500 to match Maher against Steve O'Donnell, the forfeit to remain up one month. Quinn said to-day that judging from Brady's conduct he is afraid to chance any money on O'Donnell against Maher. "We may be after Corbett before we are through," said Quinn, "but at present we are content to show that Maher is able to defeat O'Donnell."

Maher will appear here Thanksgiving week and offers $1,000 to any corner who will stay four rounds with him. Manager Brady has been out of town for several days, returned this afternoon and was soon waited upon by a representative of Quinn's, who made known Maher's offer to fight O'Donnell. Brady thereupon gave as his ultimatum that O'Donnell would not fight anyone until Corbett had fought Fitzsimmons, because O'Donnell was under contract to Corbett and would not be at liberty until after the theatrical season closed.

Brady suggested that Maher endeavor to arrange a match with Joe Choyinski or Jim Hall and also said if Quinn would post a forfeit of $1,000 any time this week, for a match with O'Donnell at the same time as the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight, the amount will be covered.

TWO GOOD GAMES

Played by the Nameless and Calumet Teams—Nameless Wins.

Club	Won.	Lost.	Per cent.	High Score.
The bowlers	6	0	1.000	834
LaBelle	4	0	1.000	827
The Bowlers	4	0	1.000	820

Lotus	1	7	.125	777
Calumet	0	8	.000	835
Pen and Pencil	0	8	.000	849

Double victories and defeats seem to be the fate in bowlingdom just now—so of course the Nameless boys had to be in the push. They defeated the Calumets in two well played games last evening, and the closeness of their scores are in evidence, showing the interest taken in the game.

The Calumets have been very unfortunate in their playing, but the Pen and Pencil club seems determined to keep them company. Trusheel had the high score, 152, in the first game, followed by Wells with 151. Score: Nameless—Campbell, 110; Atkinson, 135; Aul, 128; Muhn, 126; Carabauer, 140; Wells, 151; total, 802.

Calumet—Trusheel, 142; A. Welty, 112; Cameron, 141; J. Welty, 167; Murphy, 107; Weitzel, 109; total, 717. The second game was a more evenly contested one and the scores were higher. Wells made the high score of the evening, 184, and Weitzel for the Calumets, led with 150. Score: Nameless—Campbell, 148; Atkinson, 178; Aul, 112; Muhn, 110; Carabauer, 139; Wells, 184; total, 889.

THEY BREAK RECORDS.

Excelsior	2	4	.333	828
Phonix	0	6	.000	741

The games between the South Side and Harvest teams of the South Side Bowling League at Mozart Park last evening were remarkable for two things in addition to the double defeat administered Captain Fette's men by the Wright combination. Not only did the South Side team roll up the largest team score made so far this season in either league, 900, but the individual score record was smashed by Dudley, of the South Side team, who laid low 192 pins. In the first contest the Harvest boys were lost in the shuffle, making only 674 to the 888 made by their opponents.

The score: South Side—Speidel, 171; Marschner, 144; Dudley, 192; Handlan, 130; Horstman, 102; Wright, 149; total, 888.

Harvest—Fette, 103; Schul, 139; Joe Baumann, 80; Strippie, 89; Frantz, 128; Yenke, 100; total, 674.

The second game brought even a larger team score by the South Side club, Wright leading with 185. Strippie did the best work for the Harvest team, 171. Score: South Side—Speidel, 159; Marschner, 143; Dudley, 113; Handlan, 135; Horstman, 165; Wright, 185; total, 900.

Harvest—Fette, 103; Schul, 127; Joe Baumann, 102; Strippie, 121; Frantz, 122; Yenke, 131; total, 760.

BASE BALL CONVENTION.

Prospects for the New Association are Very Bright.

New York, Nov. 14.—When the annual meeting of the National League of base ball clubs began to-day the reappointment of Nick Young as president, treasurer and secretary of the league was confirmed and the meeting took up the consideration of the rules. As the afternoon wore on it was very generally conceded even by those who had expressed approval of the new association that its prospects of establishment are very bright.

One prominent Brooklyn man said: "If it is to be formed, which are the four clubs to be dropped from the league? None of them will voluntarily withdraw. If they have, they must be bought and that is extremely unlikely. Then there is the question of capital. The American Association would require at least $25,000 to start with. A ground at a moderate estimate will cost $10,000 or $12,000 and I don't see after the experience of the brotherhood in 1890 where it is to come from. The American Association will not have half the advantages of the brotherhood."

The convention remained in session from 2 o'clock to 5 o'clock when President Young officially announced what the proceedings had been.

In speaking of his re-election as secretary and manager, he said it was the twenty-seventh time he had been re-elected.

the existing proviso was struck out and the following substituted:

"The ten days release provided for in the 17th paragraph of the league form of contract shall be taken to run from the time of notice thereof is received by the secretary of the league, who shall at once promulgate the same to all club members. At the expiration of the said ten days the player so released shall be eligible to contract with the releasing club or any other club."

Heretofore any club who wanted to release a man before July 1 had ten days in which he could resign, but now the club must release him after that time.

Section 15 providing that every club shall play at least twelve games with each other club, and providing that in case of an unfinished game that the deciding game must be played on the same grounds as was the unfinished game was played on, was amended to allow of its being played on the ground of the other club, should there be no open date on the ground of the club where the unfinished game was played.

The question of the division of the receipts was then taken up and will not be concluded until to-morrow, when the convention will meet at 10 o'clock.

STEAMBOATS COLLIDE.

The Keystone State and Tom Dodsworth Come Together

IN THE DENSE FOG DOWN THE RIVER

Near Bearsville, But Happily the Damage to Neither Was Serious. The Dodsworth's Cylinder Timber Broken—It Was a Narrow Escape From a Repetition of the Terrible Scioto Disaster.

Tuesday night was a very foggy one on the river and steamboatmen whose "boats passed in the night" were running at considerable risk and danger. In the case of the Keystone State, the Pittsburgh and Cincinnati packet commanded by Captain Calhoun, and the towboat Tom Dodsworth, there was very nearly a repetition of the terrible Scioto disaster that horrified the upper Ohio valley several years ago. The Keystone State, the first of the Pittsburgh line to come out on the late river, was bound down river and the Dodsworth was coming up stream with empty coal boats. The two boats met at Witten's landing below Bearsville, about thirty miles down the river. Both were running on half a head of steam, and a bright outlook was kept up on both boats, but on account of the dense fog, notwithstanding the precautions, the two came together, the big packet striking the Dodsworth on the starboard side and crashing in a cylinder timber. Happily, on account of the low rate at which both boats were going the damage was not serious and nobody was hurt. The Keystone proceeded down to Cincinnati and the Dodsworth came on up with her tow.

But the enormous demand for Pearline— for something that will save work and yet be safe to use, has started a host of washing-powders, all imitations of Pearline. They ought to make women think. If you can get risky help from a poor imitation, why not get safe help from the original and the best? If you used the cheapest washing-powder for a year, instead of Pearline, you couldn't save enough to pay your loss in one ruined garment.
